Tuition Fee Reduction System

Rikkyo University offers tuition reductions for privately-financed international students with "College Student" resident status who face financial difficulties pursuing university education. The application procedures are carried out after admission. Based on the application documents, the International Office will check whether the applicant has "College Student" resident status and determine whether the applicant qualifies upon reviewing his/her financial situation. Students who do not carry out the application procedures will not be eligible for tuition reductions.

The following students are ineligible:

- Global Liberal Arts Program (GLAP) students

- Graduate School of Business Administration students
- Graduate School of Social Design Studies students
- Students have been enrolled in the university longer than the standard period of study

Note: The reduction percentage for the academic year 2018 is 30% (the reduction percentage may vary each year). For details regarding academic fees and other payments, see the university website.

- Notes:
1. The admission fee is only collected upon enrollment.
 2. The Department of Global Business of the College of Business offers Overseas EAP, a short-term overseas training course that generally must be taken by all students in their first year of study. The cost is ¥550,000-¥600,000 and is paid for separately from the student's academic fees and other payments. (The total cost is subject to change due to fluctuations in airfares and other related expenses.)
 3. Students who participate in the Study Abroad Training program (run by the Department of Intercultural Communication of the College of Intercultural Communication) need to pay an additional fee that covers costs such as the basic program fee and accommodations, but excludes airfare. The fee is subject to change due to exchange rate fluctuations and increases in fees charged by the destination university.
